EXPLANATION OF REGULAR & OUTSTANDING COMPETITIONS

Coaches will choose either REGULAR COMPETITION or OUTSTANDING COMPETITION for each participant, then a color division under that competition:

REGULAR COMPETITION	or	OUTSTANDING COMPETITION	or	ADAPTED SADDLE DIVISION
Green Male/Female		Red Male/Female		Purple Male/Female
Yellow Male/Female

Red Division: Those contestants capable of riding and handling horse at a running speed.
Green Division: Those contestants capable of riding and handling a horse at a walking speed.
Purple Adapted Saddle Division: Those contestants requiring the support of being strapped in a saddle, with the horse being lead at a walking speed through events.
Yellow Division: Those contestants who are unable to ride a horse without assistance.

REGULAR COMPETITION

Competitors will choose 3 events offered in that color division:

GREEN DIVISION EVENTS MALE AND FEMALE	YELLOW DIVISION EVENTS MALE AND FEMALE	PURPLE ADAPTED SADDLE EVENTS (MALE & FEMALE)
Barrel Racing	Barrel Racing	Barrel Racing
Or	Flag Race	Pole Bending
Key Hole	Trail Course	Trail Course
Pole Bending	Horsemanship
Or	Goat Tie
Flag Race	Bucking Machine
Trail Course
Bucking Machine

In all events, there will be 2 Go-Rounds held. Combined points from Go-Rounds #1 and #2 will determine the 5 finalists for the Finals held on Sunday.

OUTSTANDING COMPETITION

Competitors within a color division will all participate in the same events.

In the Red Divisions, males and females will compete together. Both Saturday go-rounds will consist of three events: Pole Bending, Key Hole and Flag Race. The six accumulated times of these events from both go-rounds will determine the top 15 Outstanding finalists; these 15 finalists will be paired with community partners for the Finals on Sunday morning and will compete in Barrel Race, Pole Bending, and Flag Race. All remaining Outstanding Division participants will compete in Pole Bending and Flag Race.

RED DIVISION EVENTS MALE/FEMALE COMB.
